

ST JOHN'S CONCERTS 2012

IN THE
CONVENTUAL CHURCH OF SAINT JOHN OF JERUSALEM

IN AID OF
SAINT JOHN'S HOSPICE
GROVE END ROAD LONDON NW8 9NH

SATURDAY MARCH 3 MUSICA TRANSATLANTICA

performed by INDEX CANTORUM

director: Mark Williams

Music written for, published from, or inspired by the Americas. INDEX CANTORUM presents an exploration of a capella repertoire from the 16th century to the present day. Works by Padilla, Franco, Rachmaninov and Whitacre, together with folksong and spirituals.

SATURDAY APRIL 21 SAINTS AND SINNERS

performed by
DRAKE'S VIOLS & VOICES OF FAIR ORIANA

directors: Jenny Tribe and Simon Lillystone

A concert focusing on the rise of domestic music-making, both sacred and secular, in 17th century England through works by composers such as Byrd, Wilbye, Lupo, Pilkington and Gibbons.

SATURDAY JUNE 2 TRINITY

performed by HEXACHORD

director: Simon Lillystone

Unaccompanied choral music associated with the Holy Trinity and the symbolism of three. On the eve of the Feast of the Holy Trinity, Hexachord performs a selection of sacred music from Taverner to Telemann to Tchaikovsky.

All concerts begin at 7:30pm, and seating is unreserved. Entry is by programme available at the door, for which a contribution of £15 (or more) is suggested. A reduced offering of £10 is suggested for those entitled to a concession. Refreshments will be available for a modest contribution either at the interval or after the concert, depending on concert format.

The church, a basilica in miniature, is a magnificent, acoustically luxuriant, classical building by the architect George Goldie, which in 1890 it was moved, brick-by-brick, from Great Ormond Street, and remains the spiritual home of the Order of Malta in England.

The church is easily accessible by public transport, with St. John's Wood tube station (Jubilee Line) just 2 minutes' walk away. It is also served by bus services 13, 82, & 113 along the Finchley Road, services 46 and 187 along Circus Road, and services 139 and 189 on Lisson Grove-Abbey Road.
